DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5th. BE SURE TO SET YOUR CLOCKS BACK 1 HOUR.

Fall is in full swing! Chilly mornings and shorter days! As the calendar turns to November The Harvest Years has many activities to gather us together in the coming weeks.

Our traditional Thanksgiving luncheon will kick off our holiday season on Wednesday, November 15th. We ask that you make your reservations well in advance, as we will have limited seating. We will be offering homebound delivery that day between 11:30 AM and 1:30 PM, and we will need to know at least 24 hours beforehand to guarantee your meal delivery. Please join us on this special day to give thanks together and for a delicious meal.

Our daily Soup-to-Go has been open for business and serving warm, delicious soup to many of our members. You may enjoy a cup or a quart here or to go. Please check our daily menu for our soup de jour at the beginning of each week.

Back by popular demand, BINGO is back on the calendar for Thursday, November 9th, at 12:30 PM. Come and enjoy lunch with us before the games begin.

Movie Monday is scheduled for the 2nd Monday of the month, November 13th, Come and enjoy popcorn and a movie together.

We still have tickets to our Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser for Friday, November 3rd. Our dinner starts at 4 PM. Bring your family or groups of friends and let us do the cooking! Please make your reservations now by calling 302 698-4285. Enjoy the evening at The Harvest Years.

During the month of November, our Annual Giving Campaign continues. Shortly, you and your neighbors will be receiving a 2023 brochure highlighting the programs and activities that are offered here, year round, at The Harvest Years Senior Center. Please encourage all you know to donate what they can to this very worthy non-profit organization. We are counting on all of you, as you have done in the past, to get the word out! All monetary donations are very much needed and appreciated and will be put to very good use to continue to improve our center and services. We very much want to continue our level of service and commitment to our seniors in the Camden/Wyoming area as well as our surrounding communities.

Thank you to all of those who have already donated in 2023.

TRIP MEETING

Our trip meeting on October 27th produced many exciting new ideas for 2024. I will be working on many of them through the end of this year and hopefully get some of the details printed in our newsletter beginning in January 2024.

Keep in mind that upon Signing Up for any trip requires a $50.00 Deposit per person. Each trip flyer will also have a time deadline when all final payments are due to me. If these dates are not met I cannot hold your reservation. If I have a waiting list your name will be removed and someone from the waiting list will get your ticket.

Local Day Trips costing $25.00 or less will need to be Paid-In-Full when you are signing up. No refunds if you cancel, unless your ticket can be sold.

Travel Insurance is recommended for overnight trips. For those who choose not to purchase travel protection insurance you will be asked to sign a waiver. Travel Insurance premiums are non-refundable.

Looking forward to an exciting 2024!!!
