I hope this February finds you warm and well! We here at The Harvest Years are looking forward to a fabulous February!

Come spend some of the 29 days with us!

One Wednesday, February 14th we will host our Annual Valentine's Day Luncheon. Good Food and good fun is on the menu. Grab your sweetheart or meet one here and join us! Wear red, white or pink. We will also have a special romantic luncheon for two available. Purchase a raffle ticket now for chance to win this private, special treat for you and your valentine. The winning couple will receive roses and a candle-lit meal. Buy your chance to win today!

Our Soup-to-Go continues through these chilly winter months. Please call ahead to check out what our soup of the day is. Cups, bowls and quarts are available to enjoy here at the center or to take home. Are we serving your favorite today? Bring some extra home to stock in your freezer.

Speaking of soup....Thank you to all of those that contributed to our successful Soup Festival held on February 2nd. Your help, generosity and delicious recipes were greatly appreciated.

February kicks off tax season! AARP will be here once again with their Tax Assistance Program. This service is available to our seniors to help you with all your filing needs. We are currently taking appointments for Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 9 AM to 11 AM beginning February 1st and continuing through April 11th. This service is by appointment only. Due to the host site and AARP restrictions, the Tax Aid Program will continue to implement that only seniors aged 60 and over will be able to take advantage of this service. Please make your appointment early, as they fill up quickly!

VERY IMPORTANT: Your Harvest Years Membership Dues were due to our office as of January 1, 2024. As of February 1st, your new rate for membership will be $23.00 per person, per year. It is also a great time to think about enrolling in another option, our Lifetime Membership for $150.00. By enrolling in the lifetime membership, you will always be current and will not have to worry about a yearly fee or the increases that may occur.

Lastly, our Annual Giving Campaign has wrapped up for 2023 and I am so pleased to say that it was a huge success. Please join me in sincerely thanking all of our neighbors, friends and family members throughout the Camden/Wyoming and Dover communities and beyond for all of their continued generosity throughout the years is deeply appreciated. Because of you, we are able to keep our center running successfully.

Take advantage of our driving services as often as possible and check local stations or our answering machine for any closures or delayed openings due to inclement weather.

Notes From Your Activities Director
Diane Amoroso

February 14th,
2024

February promises to be a busy and exciting month filled with many celebrations.

First we celebrate Black History Month

Black History Month was created to focus attention on the contributions of African Americans to the United States. It honors all Black people from all periods of U.S history, from the enslaved people first brought over from Africa to African Americans living in the United States today.

February 2nd is Punxsutawney Phil Ground Hog Day and our friendly Pennsylvania Ground Hog's shadow will tell us whether or not we can expect 6 more weeks of winter.

ASH WEDNESDAY begins on February 14th and is the beginning of 7 weeks of Lent until Easter.

Next we turn our attention to all the Love Birds at our center. Each Valentine's Day we celebrate with a special luncheon dedicated to everyone who have people in their lives that are important to them, be it their spouse, their best friend, a co-worker, or a relative. Love Is In The Air at Harvest Year on February 14th!

We are proud to celebrate two of our most celebrated President's birthdays in February:

President George Washington
February 22, 1732

President Abraham Lincoln
February 12, 1809

To Honor and Celebrate their lives Harvest Years Senior Center will be CLOSED on Monday, February 19th for President's Day.

Last, but certainly not least: The month of February is American Heart Month. Wear Red - Examine your own health habits and risks and take steps to improve your heart.

Special Luncheon For Two

You are invited to join us for a Special Valentine's Day Lunch Wednesday, February 14, 2024

*Purchase a Raffle Ticket for $3.00 and win a lunch for two.

You will be seated separately at a table set for 2 and have a very special meal served by your own waiter.

A Lace Tablecloth, Roses, Candlelight and Sparkling Cider will adorn the table.

Raffle Tickets available at our Front Desk.

Winter Weather Alert Winter is here!!!

Winter weather will be with us for at least 2 or 3 more months, so please be sure to listen to your radio (WDSB or Eagle 97) or check WBOC stations or websites to be certain the Center is open if inclement weather hits through March. You may also call the Center at (302) 698-4285 before you head out. If we are closed there will be a message posted on the phone service. We will also post notices on the HYSC Facebook page. SPOTLIGHT ON RUBY BRIDGES

At the tender age of six, Ruby Bridges advanced the cause of civil rights in November 1960 when she became the first African American student to integrate an elementary school in the South.

Born on September 8, 1954, Bridges was the oldest of five children for Lucille and Abon Bridges, farmers in Tylertown, Mississippi. When Ruby was two years old, her parents moved their family to New Orleans, Louisiana in search of better work opportunities. Ruby's birth year coincided with the US Supreme Court's landmark ruling in Brown v. the Board of Education of Topeka Kansas, which ended racial segregation in public schools.

Nonetheless, southern states continued to resist integration, and in 1959, Ruby attended a segregated New Orleans kindergarten. A year later, however, a federal court ordered Louisiana to desegregate. The school district created entrance exams for African American students to see whether they could compete academically at the all-white school. Ruby and five other students passed the exam.

Her parents were torn about whether to let her attend the all-white William Frantz Elementary School, a few blocks from their home. Her father resisted, fearing for his daughter's safety; her mother, however, wanted Ruby to have the educational opportunities that her parents had been denied. Meanwhile, the school district dragged its feet, delaying her admittance until November 14th. Two of the other students decided not to leave their school at all; the other three were sent to the all-white McDonough Elementary School.

Ruby and her mother were escorted by four federal marshals to the school every day that year. She walked past crowds screaming vicious slurs at her. Undeterred, she later said she only became frightened when she saw a woman holding a black baby doll in a coffin. She spent her first day in the principal's office due to the chaos created as angry white parents pulled their children from school. Ardent segregationists withdrew their children permanently. Barbara Henry, a white Boston native, was the only teacher willing to accept Ruby, and all year, she was a class of one. Ruby ate lunch alone and sometimes played with her teacher at recess, but she never missed a day of school that year.

While some families supported her bravery—and some northerners sent money to aid her family—others protested throughout the city. The Bridges family suffered for their courage: Abon lost his job, and grocery stores refused to sell to Lucille. Her share-cropping grandparents were evicted from the farm where they had lived for a quarter-century. Over time, other African American students enrolled; many years later, Ruby's four nieces would also attend. In 1964, artist Norman Rockwell celebrated her courage with a painting of that first day entitled, "The Problem We All Live With."

Ruby graduated from a desegregated high school, became a travel agent, married and had four sons. She was reunited with her first teacher, Barbara Henry, in the mid 1990s, and for a time the pair did speaking engagements together. Ruby later wrote about her early experiences in two books and received the Carter G. Woodson Book Award.

A lifelong activist for racial equality, in 1999, Ruby established The Ruby Bridges Foundation to promote tolerance and create change through education. In 2000, she was made an honorary deputy marshal in a ceremony in Washington, DC.
